TO: All Individuals and Groups Interested in the Activities of the Commission for Teacher Preparation and Licensing

FROM: Peter L. LoPresti, Executive Secretary Peter L. LoPresti

SUBJECT: Title 5 Regulations, Section 80072(a), Allow for an Appeal for Extraordinary Circumstances

In accordance with Commission policy, the following Title 5 regulations are being distributed prior to a public hearing. The public hearing has been scheduled as follows:

Friday, December 7, 1979

10:00 a.m.

Hilton Hotel & Towers

Cabrillo Room

Ellis & Mason Streets

San Francisco, California 94102

Please feel free to duplicate and distribute these proposed Title 5 Regulations to anyone you believe might be interested in responding.

If you wish to make a presentation regarding the above to the Commission, please bring 30 copies of your material for distribution to the Commissioners and staff. If you can provide your statement to the Commission office 15 days before the public hearing, sufficient copies of the material will be duplicated and distributed for Commission and staff use. We would also appreciate a call to the Commission office if you plan to make a presentation in order to schedule sufficient time on the agenda for people who wish to address the Commission.

80072(a). Allow for an Appeal for Extraordinary Circumstances.
Within 30 days after a score report for a written examination has been received for any certificate or credential issued by the Commission, an unsuccessful applicant may file a petition of appeal with the Executive Secretary on the grounds of fraud, discrimination, clerical error in scoring, or other extraordinary improper acts or circumstances related to which were reported to the test supervisor at the time of the administration of the examination and which a reasonable person could agree deprived the applicant candidate of a fair opportunity chance to take and pass the examination; except that mere failure to pass an examination which has been successfully passed by other applicants shall not be grounds for appeal.
